

I am writing to request that the FCC sanction Sinclair Broadcasting for its decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary immediatley before the election. My husband's army reserve unit is now preparing for a year in Iraq. I want him to be defending a free country, not one whose media are owned by a few large corporations that manipulate the public. Thank you for your consideration.